And that is the sort of a parish that was down in Dunklin County a few weeks ago. There was naught there but a saw-

Under the direction of Father Peters the sawm!!! was placed in operation and the hean trees were sawed into crude boards. These boards, the first product of the sawm!!!, went toward the building of thirty homes, and in these homes the first coronists are now quartered.

A little town has already been established, and being in close proximity to two railroads, the colonists will not be subjected to the isolation and inconvenience of the early pioneers, whose rapid transit, in most instances, was provided by a yoke of oxen.
